Dear Rick Smith,

9/24/84

It was a bad day for this aging body and I was so weary after my morning therapy I planned a nap until, in the same mail with your thoughtful letter, I received another defamation by the Department of Justice. It made so much adrenalin flow that after I wrote Jim Lesar, my FOIA lawyer, I took your suggestion and dashed off the enclosed submission to the Oped page.

You are the kind of guy Mo Waldron described, I appreciate it and I thank you for it.

Best wishes,

Harold
